We ſhould be much wanting in our Duty, and and inſenſible of the great Happineſs we enjoy in the Laws of our own Country, under your Majeſty's gracious Protection, in this wherein we are are eſtabliſhed, if we had not given this dutiful Teſtimony of our Loyalty and Gratitude upon ſo joyful and intereſting an Occaſion.

The Bleſſings we have already experienced of Civil and Religious Liberty and Conſtitutional Freedom under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, and the Proſpect we have of a Continuance of them, fill our Hearts with that Gratitude ſo juſtly due to the beſt of Sovereigns.

May the Almighty, who has ſo graciouſly reſtored your Majeſty to the ardent Prayers and Wiſhes of a grateful and affectionate People, long preſerve a Life ſo valuable, and continue to your Majeſty every publick and domeſtick Felicity.

To the Great Diſpoſer of all Events we do moſt unfeignedly return our Thanks for His Infinite Goodneſs in reſtoring your Majeſty from your late unhappy Indiſpoſition to the ardent Prayers and earneſt Wiſhes of your faithful Subjects. If any Thing can equal the Effuſions of Joy on ſo important an Occaſion, it is the Attachment we bear to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

May

May your Majeſty live long in the Hearts of a People who enjoy the Felicity of Freedom and Happineſs under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government; and may the Bleſſings which your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort's Care and Concern for their Welfare have diffuſed throughout the Kingdom, be delivered down by the Wiſdom and Virtues of your Majeſty's Poſterity to the lateſt Ages.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

That theſe our Hopes may not be diſappointed, and that your Majeſty may long continue to reign with perfect Health and Happineſs over a free and loyal People, is the devout Prayer of your affectionate and loyal Subjects of this County.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, Heritors and other Gentlemen of the County of Caithneſs, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the utmoſt Loyalty and Affection. Senſible of the many Advantages that have reſulted to the Britiſh Empire from your Majeſty's mild and equal Adminiſtration: That our Laws and Liberties have been preſerved inviolate: That our Commerce has flouriſhed; and every elegant and uſeful Art found a liberal Protection under your foſtering Hand; we could not but deplore that afflicting Calamity which for a Time ſuſpended the Functions of Government, and deprived the Nation of your Paternal Care.

And now, with Hearts full of Gratitude to Almighty God, and of the ſincereſt Love and Reverence for our Sovereign, we beg Leave to join with our Fellow Subjects of theſe Realms in offering our Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Recovery, and Re-aſſumption of the Reins of Government; earneſtly imploring Heaven, That your Majeſty's Reign may be as diſtinguiſhed by Length of Years and Fulneſs of Proſperity, as it has been by the Exerciſe of every Public Duty, and of every Private Virtue.

To the KING.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Preſident and Fellows of the Royal College of Phyſicians in Edinburgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to join in the univerſal Expreſſions of Happineſs on the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health.

We aſſure your Majeſty that the painful Solicitude with which your Subjects in general were affected during the Interruption of it, was felt by none in a more ſenſible Manner; and that our Hearts are proportionally filled with Joy and Gratitude to Heaven on the auſpicious Event of your Recovery.

Your Majeſty has on this Occaſion experienced, in the faithful Attachment and warm Affection of your Subjects, the Effects of thoſe Virtues by which you have endeared yourſelf to a free People; and the Satisfaction which you muſt now feel is another Source of Pleaſure to them.

May your Majeſty long enjoy the Bleſſings of Health and domeſtic Felicity; and may you always attain the Objects of your moſt earneſt Wiſhes and Exertions, which are to raiſe the Reputation and encreaſe the Proſperity of your People, to promote Virtue, Science, and the uſeful Arts, and to avert from your Kingdoms and from other Nations the Horrors of War.

[Delivered by his Grace the Duke of Montagu.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

AMIDST the Congratulations of a loyal and affectionate People, may your Majeſty be pleaſed to permit us the Preſident, Vice-Preſidents and Truſtees of the Weſtminſter Hoſpital to approach your Throne, and expreſs our Joy on your Majeſty's perfect Recovery; at the ſame Time we return our moſt humble Thanks to the Divine Providence, which has reſtored your Majeſty to the ardent Wiſhes of your faithful Subjects. A Reign diſtinguiſhed for embracing every Object that can promote the internal Peace, Happineſs and Security of the People, is ſufficient to endear your Majeſty's Name to the lateſt Poſterity; but the Affection of your Majeſty's immediate Subjects could never have been ſo clearly evinced, unleſs an Illneſs (however to be lamented) had afforded them an Opportunity of manifeſting an Attachment unparalleled in any other Age or Country.

We pray that your Majeſty may long reign over us a happy and united People enjoying the ineſtimable Bleſſings of our Civil and Religious Liberties which diſtinguiſh this Land from all other Nations.

We, in common with your Majeſty's other Subjects, have too long experienced the Mildneſs and Benignity of your Majeſty's Government, not to tremble for the Safety of a Monarch, whoſe private Virtues and whoſe public Conduct ſo juſtly claim our Admiration and Reſpect. We have heard with Gratitude to Heaven that the Almighty has been graciouſly pleaſed to liſten to the united Prayers of every Individual in theſe Kingdoms, and has reſtored your Majeſty from the Bed of Sickneſs to the Government of your People That your Majeſty may long continue to reign over us, and that your Royal Conſort may enjoy the juſt Rewards of her Care, Fidelity and Attachment, can be wiſhed for by none with more Earneſtneſs and Sincerity than by your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects within this Borough.

Impiouſly diſloyal muſt thoſe Hearts have been, that could have beheld unmoved the ſoul-rending Affliction of ſo exalted, ſo amiable a Family! Every Inſtance of dutiful Affection, every fervent Prayer offered up to the God of all Mercies for the Recovery of our gracious Monarch, and for the Conſolation of your Majeſty, we were equally impelled to by Duty, Intereſt and Inclination; and as we have ſenſibly felt the Miſeries of the late melancholy Infliction, we humbly hope your Majeſty's wonted Clemency and Indulgence will permit us to expreſs our heartfelt Joy and Thankfulneſs to Almighty God for it's happy Removal. Long, very long, may it pleaſe the all-wiſe Diſpenſer of all good Gifts to preſerve the Life and Health of our moſt gracious Sovereign! And long, very long, may you, Madam, ſoften and relax the Care and Anxieties attendant on His exalted Station with the ſoothing Sweetneſs of domeſtic Felicity! The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhops, Biſhops and Clergy of Ireland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhops, Biſhops and Clergy of Ireland, with Hearts full of the moſt devout Gratitude to the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events, and of the moſt loyal and affectionate Attachment to the beſt of Sovereigns, preſent our warmeſt Congratulations to your Majeſty on the Reſtoration of your Health, and the Reſumption of your equal and mild Government.

We are ambitious to manifeſt our Joy, amidſt that of the whole Empire, when the Cauſe of true Religion is no leſs promoted by your Majeſty's perſonal Example than by your Royal Authority; when the Advancement of ſound Learning and uſeful Education is recommended from the Throne; and when the Bleſſings both of Civil and Religious Liberty are diffuſed among all your Majeſty's Subjects.

It is our ardent Prayer, that the King of Kings may ſhower on your Majeſty His choiceſt Gifts; and that, after a proſperous and protracted Reign your Majeſty's Reward for weilding a righteous Sceptre may be a Crown of immortal Glory.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Freeholders of the County of Donegal, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our Congratulation, lations on your happy Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition. We felt, in common with the Nation at large, the deepeſt Anxiety and Diſtreſs during the Continuance of your Majeſty's Illneſs.

We acknowledge, therefore, with the utmoſt Gratitude, the Goodneſs of Divine Providence, in reſtoring your Majeſty to the fervent Prayers of your People; and we ſincerely hope, that your Majeſty will long continue, with uninterrupted Health, to witneſs the Proſperity of your Subjects, for the Enjoyment of which they are ſo greatly indebted to your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government.

Wybrants Olphert, Sheriff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

AMIDST the univerſal Joy on the happy Event of the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health, permit us your faithful Subjects, in Behalf of ourſelves, and of an extenſive populous and induſtrious County, to join our Sentiments with the general Voice, and humbly to approach your Majeſty with unfeigned Effuſions of Loyalty and Congratulation.

Whilſt your Majeſty's Domeſtic Virtues are a Theme for Inſtruction, and a Model for Imitation to every Rank of Life; and whilſt the Ratification of conſtitutional Liberty and the free Extenſion of Trade, are the Teſtimonies of Public Regard, which your Majeſty has beſtowed on this Kingdom, we muſt, with heart-felt Satisfaction, acknowledge the Bleſſings of the Reſtoration of that Source from whence ſuch abundant Good is derived; and unite in pouring forth our Gratitude for thoſe Boons which have marked the Era of Majeſty's Reign as the moſt propitious this Country has, for a Series of Years, experienced.

That your Majeſty's Days may be long, healthful and happy; that the Energy of your Kingdoms may have no other Object of Competition than by a ſtrict Amity and indiſſoluble Coaleſcence to aggrandize and dignify your Imperial Crown, is our ſincere and fervent Prayer. Conſcious that we can enjoy no Benefit ſo great as the being governed by Him, who is indeed the Father of His People; and aſſured that your Majeſty's paternal Affection can receive no earthly Gratification ſuperior to that of diſpenſing to your Subjects Virtue, Freedom and Proſperity.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Aileſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſehold, has by him been preſented to Her Majeſty: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE, the Archbiſhops, Biſhops and Clergy of Ireland, participating with our Fellow Subjects the common Joy univerſally felt and expreſſed at this Time, humbly offer to your Majeſty our unfeigned Congratulations on the preſent ſignal Inſtance of Divine Favour, in delivering our Gracious Sovereign from a ſevere Indiſpoſition, and reſtoring Him in perfect Health to the Wiſhes and the Prayers of a grateful, loyal and affectionate People.

We acknowledge, with the reſt of His Majeſty's Subjects, that, under His auſpicious Reign, we enjoy in Security all the civil Rights of a free Conſtitution. But it is our immediate Duty, who are peculiarly appointed to inculcate the Precepts of ſound Morality and true Religion, to expreſs our Gratitude to the Giver of all good Gifts, for reſtoring to us the beſt of Sovereigns, whoſe Life and Example have been a continued Leſſon to His Subjects, to diſcountenance Vice of every Kind, and to diffuſe throughout the Britiſh Empire the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Virtue and Religion.

May your Majeſty's domeſtick Happineſs experience no Interruption. But may the ſame kind Providence, that has converted our Mourning into Gladneſs, and our Supplications into the Voice of Thankſgiving, make His Bleſſings as permanent as they are ſignal. And may your publick Virtues contiuue to ſecure to your Majeſty, during a long and proſperous Life, the Eſteem, Affection and Attachment of a free and loyal People.
